Office 125 Main Street.
ASHTABULA, OHIO
 Friday Morning, May 21, 1880.

Republican State Ticket.
 Election Tuesday, October 12, 1880.
 For Secretary of State,
 CHARLES H. TOWNSEND, of Athens.
 Judge of Supreme Court,
 G. W. McILVAINE, of Tuscarawas.
 Clerk of Supreme Court,
 WRIGHT CROWELL, of Ashtabula.
 Member Board Public Works,
 S. H. HOSMER, of Muskingum.
 School Commissioner,
 D. F. DeWOLF, of Summit.

A special express train, on a trial trip between Philadelphia and Jersey City on Friday last, made the run of 90 miles in 97 minutes, and the return trip in 90 1/2 minutes.

If the sheriff of the State in their conclave on the 14th of July, should come to the conclusion that their fees are below a living standard, and indulge in a strike, who would care?

On Saturday last, the House of Representatives voted 121 to 91, to adjourn on the 31st inst. This is probably but a feint, and the vote has no heart or purpose in it to conform legislation to the tenor of the vote.

At the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday last, the President announced that he had decided to appoint Horace Maynard, United States Minister at Constantinople, to succeed General Key as Postmaster General.

The ex-Empress Eugenie before starting for Zululand presented her imperial crown to the Church of Notre Dame des Victoires, Paris. It is of great value on account of its artistic composition and the number of precious stones it contains.

Senator Ben Hill has found more than a match in Hampton, who has taken ground against him in the Kollogg-Spott case. Ben is not supported by his party friends, and been driven to the wall and Kollogg is not likely to be disturbed.

The House Committee on Military Affairs instructed Representative McCook to appear before the House Committee on Appropriations and urge an appropriation of $40,000 to rebuild Memorial Hall, recently destroyed by fire at the Soldiers' Home at Dayton.

We suggested some time, that there was a tolerable chance for Gen. Schofield to be removed from West Point, for his short sighted and rather contumacious course in connection with the Whitaker case—the colored cadet. It is now stated on good authority that Schofield will be removed and placed in command of the Military Department of the Missouri, and General Pope, now in command of that department, sent to West Point.

The Cook County—Ill.—Convention, which met at Chicago on Monday, resulted in the withdrawal of the Grant men, and the election of two delegates to the State Convention which meets at Springfield on the 19th inst. The Blaine and Washburne men had a large majority in the Convention, and acted in harmony, electing sixty two Washburne delegates, and thirty for Blaine. The bolting delegation are unanimously for Grant.

A Leader dispatch has it that an effort would be made in the House on Tuesday last for fixing a date for a final adjournment. The Ways and Means Committee have long had a resolution pending before them fixing the 24th of this month, and may report it back amended for some day a little later. If not Judge Buckner of Missouri will try to introduce a resolution fixing the 31st as the time and ask a vote upon it without reference to a committee.

A resolution has been adopted at a bar meeting at Cleveland, in favor of a State Bar Association. In furtherance of this object, each local association is invited to send one delegate to every ten members, and the bar of each county without organization, a delegate upon the same basis of representation and any county having a bar of less than ten members to be entitled to one delegate to a meeting at Cleveland on Thursday the 8th day of July 1880, for the formation of such a State body.

John Chinaman is working out the problem of American civilization. The program he has marked out for his work is very likely to effect the end in view, and further, give permanence to his relations as a resident and citizen of the country. Naturalization and the possession and exercise of the right of suffrage will settle the matter beyond a peradventure. Our exchanges having begun to allude to these cases of naturalization, and John having his face set in that direction, the instances are becoming more and more frequent.

The N. Y. Tribune publishes a full list of the 600 delegates already elected to the Chicago Convention, classifying their preferences for Presidential candidates as follows: Blaine, 241; Grant, 224; Sherman, 61; Edmunds, 31; Washburne, 15. According to these figures, Grant lacks over 150 votes of a majority, and the Tribune says that, conceding to him all the delegates yet to be chosen whom he can possibly obtain, he will still be 69 votes away from a majority. It is claimed that Blaine will enter the Convention with more than 300 votes.

The town of Milton, Pa., was the scene of a disastrous conflagration on Friday last. Six hundred houses were totally destroyed, and the losses are estimated at over a million dollars. Fifteen hundred people were rendered homeless, many in a destitute condition. Among the buildings burned are the Academy of Music, five churches, banks, telegraph and newspaper offices, Pennsylvania Railway depot and hotels. The property consumed was insured in about fifteen companies, mostly of Philadelphia. The Lycoming is the heaviest sufferer, its losses aggregating nearly $100,000.

The second Florida district, which contains Jacksonville, the leading commercial point of the State, and has many northerners engaged in business, is a Republican district. It was represented in the closing days of the last Congress and the entire existence of the present one, by a Democratic member, who holds his seat not because he was elected, but because the House majority arbitrarily seated him. The Republicans of the district have just started that contest over again by renominating Horatio Bibbee, Jr., whom they have twice elected by good majorities. The next Congress will be Republican and Mr. Bibbee in all probability will be a member of it.

—One of the best jobs of building moving, that has come to our knowledge, is that completed last week by Deb Sweet, for J. Sum. Blyth. The house has been built in three detachments. A continual line of sill—under which to put a false sill to rest the building upon was found to be found, and yet, such a rest was found as to effect the removal without the spreading of the several parts, and without the cracking of walls, worthy to speak of. Sweet seems to have a natural aptitude in accuracy of judgment and mechanical skill, in his business that few men possess. We would suggest to any one having a critical job of moving, that Deb Sweet is the man to entrust it with.

The Whitaker case at West Point has taken on a change within the last few days. Circumstantial evidence goes rather to sustain the conclusion first hinted—that he himself was the author of the alleged violence upon his own person, in his business that few men possess. We would suggest to any one having a critical job of moving, that Deb Sweet is the man to entrust it with.

The identification of his peculiar style of penmanship in the so called note of warning which had been received in advance—as claimed. The evidence thus brought to bear against Whitaker, is thought to be stronger than that against any other of his fellow cadets. If Whitaker's guilt shall become established, it will be evident that he is an adept in dissimulation. Isolated and friendless, and driven into an abnormal frame of mind by his unusual surroundings, he must be supposed to have conceived the notion that a bloody assault upon him, as a colored cadet, would be so entirely in keeping with the manners and customs of West Point that his invention would receive credence. And if he is really the author of a deception, as the evidence would appear to conclude, Whitaker has borne himself with great fortitude and skill. His conviction of falsehood would disappoint all generous people, but it would not materially modify the severity of the popular judgment respecting the unfortunate management of West Point.

THIRD TERM.—Gen. Grant stands a possible chance of being elected President of the U. S. Should such a thing take place, it cannot be denied, we suppose, that it would be a third term of the office being held by the same individual. Now in view of the mysterious mischief supposed to lie hidden in a third term, why would it not be well enough to settle upon some opinion as to what that mischief is. If we cannot decide this question, and make out precisely what that mischief is, and how far it may upturn the commonwealth, how shall we be sufficiently on our guard to avoid being overtaken by the calamities with which it is believed to be so pregnant? Thus far we have been unable to define the thing, unless it be that every man who is in favor of the election of some other man, has agreed to denounce a third term as little less heinous and odious in its character than treason itself. We had a tribunal at the last election, organized outside of the constitution, called an electoral commission, and it came within one vote of placing in the presidential chair one of the very worst men—the worst to be found—that the country has produced. Has any one thought that the evils escaped were equal in perpetuity to those that hang about a third term? We suppose not. The same man and party, brought many things into use which his scheming to subvert witnesses and aiders in his race for the presidential place. Cypher, too, was one of the resorts put to use for securing success for this bold, bad man in his efforts to upturn the government, and yet we have scarcely heard of such a calamity likely to befall the country, as this third term matter when left in the hands of a man who started out in his presidential career with a pledge to carry out the known will of the people, and in his two years administration has never shown any disposition to deviate from the promises thus laid down, or in any manner to transcend his strictly defined line of duty.

Catarrhal POISON
 Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:
 1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.
 2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.
 3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
 4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea, and Gonorrhea.
 5. That Smokes, Bubbles, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
 6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative ability for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucus wherever located.

Barb and Iron, introduced in 1856 by Nichols & Co., is an old and valuable remedy for the cure of dyspepsia, loss of appetite, bilis, etc.

High Priced Butter.
 Dairymen often wonder how their more favored competitors get such high prices for their butter the year around. It is by always having a uniform gilt edged article, to put the gift edge on, when the pastures do not do it, they use Wells, Richardson & Co's Perfected Butter Color. Every butter maker can do the same. Sold everywhere and warranted as harmless as salt, and perfect in operation.

Women never Think!
 If the crabbid old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of woman in determining the best medicine to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in selecting Hop Bitters as the best and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perfect health, at a mere nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false.
